

FOOD RESILIENCE IN DORSET

DORSET CLIMATE ACTION NETWORK & FEEDING DORSET PARTNERSHIP
AN OPEN ZOOM EVENT

Tues 30th Sept, 7pm - 9pm

Registration required - Click here to confirm your place

From an agriculture, horticulture and land use perspective, what and where are the main blockers to creating a local , sustainable, resilient and socially just food economy in Dorset?

Speakers:

Mary Durling Little Oak Farm, Wootton Fitzpaine

Anna Bromley from In my Back Yard and Good Food Loop

Alasdair McNabb from The Old Ways, Netherbury.

Leila Simon Tamarisk Farm West Bexington

This Zoom meeting offers you and your organisation the opportunity to share your unique perspective on the issues that sit right at the heart of Dorset's food culture and economy.

The Feeding Dorset Partnership is participating in the third Dorset COP on November 1 at The Exchange in Sturminster Newton. We are supporting action-focused workshops on Food Resilience and Security in Dorset with farming being a core theme

Membership of Dorset CAN is required for all attendees of our zoom events, by registering for the event you agree to become a member of DCAN and agree to our T&Cs that can be viewed here
